NEW STAFF HIGHLIGHT

Noelle Ledford

Director of Operations and Development

Noelle is thrilled to officially join the POTS team. After assisting with summer camp in 2024 and 2025, Noelle comes onboard to continue her role as production manager for Players of the Stage, as well as to organize and develop POTS programming and campaigns.

Noelle is a recent graduate of Gordon College in Wenham, Massachusetts, where she earned an interdisciplinary degree in Arts Administration and Advocacy. While at Gordon, she explored a wide range of subjects including theatre, nonprofit management, technical production, music and drama performance, and marketing. She also worked in the college's development office as a Data Manager for four years and served as the Marketing Resident for the theatre arts program. Noelle is excited to bring her passion for the arts and her experience in administration to Players of the Stage.

Noelle began performing as a child in the ensembles of Fiddler on the Roof, Peter Pan, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. In high school, she returned to Fiddler on the Roof as Fruma Sarah and also appeared as Eulalie Shinn in The Music Man and Lucy in You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. During college, her roles included Shelby (understudy) in Steel Magnolias, OG Howland in Men on Boats, and Margot in *H*tlar's Tasters*. She also served for several years as Head Writer of Exit 17 Live! (sketch comedy) and as leader of the Sweaty Toothed Madmen improv comedy troupe.

Noelle loves to make music and also serves as the Music Ministry Coordinator at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church in Center Valley. She will also be dabbling in acting and improv again this fall as she helps launch the new Dinner Detective murder mystery dinner theatre location in Allentown.
