What to Expect from Camp:

FUN!
Fuh!
Learning!
oh, and more FUN!

Expect your child to have a wonderful time!

We want our students to have an incredibly fun experience. Our camps are filled with laughter as we play theatrical games, work on scenes, and get to know each other. Strong friendships are often formed during the week of camp!

Expect your child to learn!

Every day we teach our actors skills that have theatrical and practical application through lessons, exercises, and scene work.

Expect your child to work hard!

We believe that children can and will excel when pushed to it. We expect the fun of hard work at camp and at home. You will need to give your child time at home to work on their scripts. If your child is younger, you may need to help them to memorize their part.

Sponsor

Theatre access is important to us! POTS keeps our tuition low, relying on the donations of individuals and sponsorships from local business and foundations to cover our costs. Please support our work of mentoring youth through theatre.

Check out our website to find out how you can sponsor our summer camps or support our scholarship fund for low-income students.

Expect your child to amaze you!

Each Friday night we stage a recital in which we showcase all of the hard work our campers have put in during the week. You'll be amazed what these young actors can do in a week!

Expect your child to hear about Jesus!

We welcome members of all faiths and beliefs to be a part of our group. Theatre is a wonderful way to grow in understanding and respect for others. Because Players of the Stage is a theatre based on a belief in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we begin and end camp in prayer and have a short devotional time each day as a way to prepare ourselves for the work of acting.
